

. . . you were right! And you can bet you're going to love this season, too!

Parallel Lives

by Mo Gaffney and Kathy Najimy

Directed by Julia Jester

NOV. 16, 17 @ 8:00 NOV. 18 @ 2:00

This series of sketches is a delightful and biting comedy, consisting of hilarious scenes that explore the plight of women, and of the pandemonium that ensues when the two sexes try to get together for more than a drink. As intelligent as it is funny, it provides a fresh take on the oldest battle of the human race. Due to strong language and adult themes, this show is recommended for mature audiences.

I Do! I Do!

Book and lyrics by Tom Jones

Music by Harvey Schmidt

Directed by Bill Brewer

APR/MAY (dates TBA)

This musical begins with Michael and Agnes on their wedding day and traces their life together over a period of fifty years, until the day they leave their house to the next pair of newlyweds. In that time we watch them go through their wedding night jitters, raise a family, negotiate mid-life crises, quarrel, separate, reconcile and grow old together, all lovingly to the strains of a tuneful, charming score which includes the standard "My Cup Runneth Over."

Parallel Lives is sponsored by

Shadowlands

by William Nicholson

Directed by Chris Beiser

FEBRUARY (dates TBA)

This play is about the love story of C.S. Lewis, author of The Chronicles of Narnia, and American poet Joy Davidman. Jack Lewis is smug in his convictions about God and His plan for the world until Joy and her young son enter his life and the bewildered theoretician of love in the abstract finally confronts its direct presence.
